A CARMEN; THE SOUL OF THE ALBAYCÍN: DINNER IN A HISTORICAL NEIGHBORHOOD WITH SUPERB VIEWS

Located in the Albaycin neighborhood, Granada's ancient Moorish quarter and an UNESCO World Heritage site, we find this elegant restaurant CARMEN with a breathtaking view of the Alhambra. The word Carmen comes from the Arab word karm meaning vine. In Granada this word meant a house in the Albaycín with specific characteristics. A home adapted to leisure and at the same time as being practical. The garden with fruit trees bring colour, shade and fragrance to the garden but also have a practical function. Often the outdoor space is on different levels. Ponds, fountains or water channels are found within the gardens, the movement of the water between the different levels creates a comforting sound as well as refreshing the area to keep the plants and trees humid. This venue features an exquisitely mastered variety of local cuisine, as well as a wide range of wines, including our ecological wine produced in the Alpujarras region.

Listening to the sound of a Spanish guitar while enjoying dinner in a Carmen with superb views to the Alhambra is something that can't be described, you have to experience it!
